REGISTRAR'S OFFICE

What is FERPA?

- FERPA is the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. This federal privacy law affords students the:
 - right to inspect and review their educational records within 45 days
 - right to seek to amend educational records
 - right to have some control over the disclosure of information from their educational records
 - right to obtain a copy of the University's student records policy (see the Undergraduate Catalog)
 - right to file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Education's Family Policy Compliance Office

Directory vs. Non-Directory Information

- May be disclosed, unless the student requests otherwise.
- Includes Personally Identifiable Information and Educational Records.
- May not be released to anyone but the student.

Educational Records

Any information maintained by the University, in any medium, that is directly related to the student.

including, but not limited to:

- Student's Class Schedule
- Grades/GPA
- Test Scores
- Academic Standing
- Academic Transcripts

* May not be release to anyone but the student.

Personally Identifiable Information

including, but not limited to:

- Social Security Number
- Student ID - PID (PeopleSoft)
- Residency Status
- Gender
- Religious Preference
- Race/Ethnicity
- Email Address

* May not be release to anyone but the student.

Written Consent

- Must be initiated by the student
- Specifies the record(s) to be released
- States the purpose of the disclosure
- Identifies the parties to whom the information may be released
- Is valid for one semester only
- Must be signed and dated, and returned to Registrar's Office by the student with a valid ID

To release non-directory information the Registrar's Office must receive written consent.

Certain individuals do not require the student's written consent to access non-directory information.

Not a comprehensive list:

- Officials with legitimate educational interest
- Officials bearing a judicial order or subpoena
- Officials responding to a health or safety emergency
- Parents of a dependent student

What about parents?

- FERPA rights transfer to the student at age 18 or once he or she attends a post-secondary institution, regardless of age.
- Parents (including legal guardians) may obtain educational record information, at the discretion of the University, if
 - they can provide the Registrar's Office with tax return documents establishing the student as a financial dependent or
 - by obtaining the student's written consent

Directory Information

- Data or information, the disclosure of which generally is not considered to be harmful or an invasion of privacy
- May be released to 3rd parties without the student's prior consent
- Can be restricted from release if the student files a written request
- Defined by UCF (within FERPA guidelines)

UCF's Directory Information Includes

- Name
- Current mailing address
- Phone number
- Date of birth
- Enrollment status (Full or Part-Time)
- Dates of attendance
