As a non-degree seeking student, there are university policies that you should be familiar with and several resources that are available to assist you:

Drop Policy

If you wish to drop a course and not be fee liable, you must notify the Department of Educational Leadership & Higher Education in writing (Lisa.Martino@ucf.edu) no later than Tuesday, May 19, 2026. After this date, students will be liable for the entire tuition amount.

Withdrawal Policy

It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from courses. Students must not assume that their classes will be canceled if they do not pay for the courses or do not attend class meetings. Students must withdraw via <https://my.ucf.edu>. A course withdrawal procedure is described on page 3 of the registration form. Withdrawal does not relieve the student of financial responsibility. Students will still be liable for the entire tuition amount.

Paying By Credit Card Online

Students may pay tuition and fees by credit card. In order to access this online option, students must have a NID (network identification number) and be enrolled in a course for the current term. Information on all payment options is available at <http://www.studentaccounts.ucf.edu>

Late Payment Fee

A $100 Late Payment Fee applies to students who do not pay fees or do not pay fees by the due date.

INFORMATION FOR RESIDENCY CLASSIFICATION

A Florida "resident for tuition purposes" is a person who has, or a dependent person whose parent or legal guardian has, established and maintained legal residence in Florida for at least twelve months. Residence in Florida must be as a bonafide domicile rather than for the purpose of maintaining a residence incident to enrollment at an institution of higher education. To qualify as a Florida resident for tuition purposes you must be a U.S. Citizen, permanent resident alien, or legal alien granted indefinite stay by the Immigration and Naturalization Service. Other persons not meeting the twelve-month legal residence requirement may be classified as Florida residents for tuition purposes only if they fall within one of the limited special categories authorized by the Florida Legislature and Board of Governors. All other persons are ineligible for classification as a Florida "resident for tuition purposes." Living in or attending school in Florida will not, in itself, establish legal residence. Students who depend on out-of-state parents for support are presumed to be legal residents of the same state as their parents.
